WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

The Charleston News and Courier (edited by F. W. Dawson and R. R. Riordan, both formerly of the Richmond press) says, lo-

"As the Carolina Rifle Battalion corps is desirous of cultivating the warmest friendship with the citizen-soldiery of our sister States, and anxious for an opportunity to remove from the minds of our Virginia friends any impressions they may entertain that Carolinians are lacking in hospitality, the following resolutions were passed unanimously and enthusiastically:

"1st. The Charleston Journal of Commerce (Colonel R. B. Rhett editor), commenting on the invitation of the Carolina Rifle bat-"Every citizen of Charleston, and, indeed, of the State, is concerned in the acceptance of this invitation, because it is very evident from the indications of the Virginia press that our Virginia visitors were not impressed with the hospitality of their entertainment during their recent visit to this State; and whether this impression is correct or not, it is the interest of every South Carolinian to remove it from their minds. Let-us hope, therefore, that this invitation will meet with a response which will again place Virginia and South Carolina into the close and friendly relation which has characterized them in their past history.' These invitations from Charleston are, of course, very gratifying-especially so as there were Charleston soldiers at Columbia, who know all about the arrangements made there for the reception of visiting military,

> REVENUE VIOLATION .- Moses Moonshine was arrested and taken before United States Commissioner Atkins yesterday for selling eigars without a license, in violation of the United States revenue laws. An examination was held and the accused bailed to answer at the December term of the United States Court.

THE THEATRE.—The weather was so very inclement last night that the Japs gave no Charleston-a splendid body of men-who performance. At 2 o'clock to-day there will be a matinée for the ladies and young folks.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

The City Pay-Roll .- The City Auditor, under a resolution of the City Council, will present to that body at its next meeting a list of all the city officers, with the salary Charleston, S. C., desire to unite with their paid. The following list embraces all the city officers who are paid from the city treasury: Mayor, Commonwealth's Attornev. City Sergeast, City Treasurer, Clerk of the Hustings Court, Commissioner of the Revenue, City Auditor, Chief of Police, Acting City Engineer, three policemen, Sudelivered by General Samuel McGowan, of perintendent of Maury Cemetery, City Attorney, Physician to the City Jail. The city has no regular street-hands, but such labor

The City Attor- or Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.-The ney is only paid for services rendered, but great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the in a city as fond of litigation as Manchester the amount paid in lawyers' fees is not inconsiderable. It is not alleged that but few, if any, of the above officers are receiving too high a compensation. The resolution of reduction of the pay of all city officers ten per cent. was doubtless designed to checkmate the attempt to reduce the Mayor's salary to $100 per annum.

A Successful Fair .- The ladies of Bethle hem church, near Robiou's station, in Chesterfield, are conducting a most successful attendance has been large and a handsome sum realized.

Coming Events .- Next week will be consumated two very interesting and important events. Tuesday night Odd-Fellows' Hall will be dedicated with all the imposing ceremonies of the order. A banquet will follow the dedication ceremonies.

Wednesday night the social gathering of the Baptist congregation will take place at command, I have the honor to be yours very their church. Every preparation has been made to make this both a temporal and spiritual feast of the first order.

> Minor Topics .- The walking on the back streets was dreadful yesterday. There will be a court for the trial of civil varrants this morning.

No special services are announced at any of the churches to-morrow. All interested in the Fifth-Street Methodist church are requested to meet at the Masonic Hall to-morrow morning. The rain was heartily welcomed by house keepers and others along the line of Hull street. It made water more plentiful. The Hustings Court has adjourned for the term. Nine new buildings are reported as being
